ORDER 2015

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984

The Kent County Council is proposing to install new width restrictions in Church Street, Tovil restricting wide vehicle access as Church Street is a narrow, mostly a residential road which is unsuitable for use by wide vehicles.

A width restriction has been proposed in the interest of safety to pedestrians, other road users and for environmental and congestion reasons. By properly signing the new width restrictions it will make drivers of large vehicles more aware that their vehicles are unsuitable for the road.
