5. CONTRAVENTIONS AND ENFORCEMENT OF RESTRICTIONS IMPOSED BY THIS ORDER

(1) The Council will carry out civil enforcement of any contraventions of any prohibitions, restrictions or provisions of the Order by permitting the imposition of a Penalty Charge only on the basis of a record produced by means of an approved device.

(2) Where the Council have reason to believe that a Penalty Charge is payable in relation to a vehicle has contravened this Order, the Council will serve a PCN in accordance with the 2005 Regulations on the person appearing to be the owner or keeper of the vehicle or, the person appearing to be the person liable to pay the charge.

(3) A PCN shall be served before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the detection date. The Council shall continue to be entitled to serve a PCN during a further period of six months, beginning with the detection date, provided that:

(a) The Council has made a request within 14 days of the detection date to the Relevant National Authority for the supply of relevant particulars, and

(b) Those particulars have not been supplied before the date after the Council would not be entitled to serve a PCN by virtue of this Order.

(4) If a vehicle owner, keeper or driver contravenes any prohibitions or restrictions of this Order, a charge set by the Council pursuant to Regulations under Section 144 of the Act of 2000 (the Penalty Charge) is to be paid in the manner described in the notice within 28 days of the Date of Service of the PCN or within 14 days of the Date of Service of the PCN in the case of a Reduced Penalty Charge.

(5) When the owner, keeper or driver has been identified, the Council will issue a PCN in accordance with this Order and send the PCN by first class post.

(6) A PCN must state:

(a) The registration mark of the vehicle or, where the vehicle is being used under a trade licence, the number of the trade plate carried by the vehicle involved in the alleged contravention;

(b) The date and time at which the Authorised Officer first noticed that a of this order had occurred in respect of the date known as the contravention date;

(c) The grounds on which the Authorised Officer believes that a Penalty Charge Notice is payable with respect to that vehicle;

(d) That the Penalty Charge must be paid before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date service of the PCN;

(e) That if the Penalty Charge is paid before the end date of the period of 14 days beginning with the date of service of the PCN, a Reduced Penalty Charge shall apply;

(f) That representations may be made on any Statutory Grounds of appeal to the Council against the imposition of the Penalty Charge but that representations made outside the 28 day period may be disregarded;

(g) What the Statutory of appeal are;
(h) The Postal address to which the representations are to be sent;
(i) Any electronic mail address or FAX number to which representations may be sent as an alternative to the postal address;
(j) That, if the Penalty Charge is not paid and no representations have been made before the end of the 28 days period from the Date of Service, the Council may increase the Penalty Charge by half and take steps to enforce payment of the charge as so increased;
(k) The manner in which the Penalty Charge may be paid;
(l) that if representations are rejected by the Council, an appeal may be made on any Statutory Grounds to an adjudicator in respect of a Penalty Charge;
(m) the recipient of the PCN may, by notice in writing to the Council, request that an office be made available during normal office hours as specified on the PCN, for the purpose of viewing by him free of charge and by his representative (if any), the recording of the alleged contravention produced by the approved device from that recording which, in the Council’s opinion, established the contravention;
(n) the date of issue, being the date on which the PCN was produced by the Council;
(o) the address to which payment of the Penalty Charge must be sent.

(7) Where a police officer in uniform is satisfied that a driver of a vehicle of a vehicle has committed an alleged offence under the provisions of this Order such that liability to Fixed Penalty Notice arises; a police officer may issue such a notice at the time and date of the alleged offence to the driver of the vehicle, which shall include the particulars listed in Section 52 of The Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988.

(8) Where the owner, keeper or driver has been issued a PCN by the Council and it is proven by the owner, keeper or driver that he was issued a Fixed Penalty Notice or a Summons for the same day and time for the same contravention by a police officer, then the Council shall no longer proceed with its PCN or where the PCN was paid in accordance with this Order, the amount that was paid will be refunded in full as soon as reasonably practicable.
